BENEFITS

AVERAGE WEEKLY WAGE (AWW)

Compute wages for 1 year prior to injury, then divide by 52. Omit any period of time during which employee missed more than 7 consecutive calendar days. If employee worked less than 1 year, divide wages by number of weeks actually worked. (§97-2(5))

TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY (TTD)

If disability exceeds 7 days, benefits of 66-2/3% of AWW not to exceed the maximum compensation rate for the year in which the injury occurred. (§97-29)

TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY (TPD)

66-2/3% of the difference between the AWW before the injury and the amount able to earn after the injury up to 500 weeks, with credit for any weeks of TTD paid. (§97-30)

TOTAL DISABILITY

Post-6/24/11: Total Disability limited to 500 weeks, except in certain, statutorily prescribed circumstances. (§97-29)

DEATH BENEFITS

66-2/3% of the AWW of 500 weeks is paid to the employee's dependants within 6 years of the accident or 2 years of the final determination of disability, whichever is later. Benefits are extended beyond 500 weeks in cases of (1) dependent widows or widowers who were physically or mentally disabled on the date of death and (2) dependent minors until the age of 18. Burial expenses of $10,000 are also allowed (§97-38). Rule 409 sets forth procedures for death claims.

COMMUNICATING WITH MEDICAL PROVIDERS

COMMUNICATION WITH MEDICAL PROVIDERS

Written Communications: An employer may communicate with the employee's authorized health care provider in writing, without express authorization, to obtain specified types of relevant medical information not available in the employee's medical records. Requires contemporaneous written notice to employee. Provider's response must be provided to employee within 10 business days. (§97-25.6(c)(2))

Oral Communications: An employer may communicate with an employee's authorized health care provider in certain circumstances. Requires prior notice to employee of purpose and an opportunity to participate. Summary of communication must be provided to employee within 10 business days if employee did not participate. (§97-25.6(c)(3))

Additional Information Submitted by Employer: An employer may submit additional relevant medical information not already contained in the employee's medical records to the employee's authorized health care provider and may communicate in writing with the health care provider, subject to notice, objection and IC review procedures. (§97-25.6(d))
